AS A JOBBING TOWN

Roanoke offers special advantages for the location of jobbers here, and the extension and enlargement of its jobbing trade. There are some jobbing firms already established in the city, and in their line they are all doing a good business. But there is plenty of room for more, and, with the right men in the business, there is no reason why much of the trade that now goes to Lynchburg and Knoxville could not be diverted here.

The latter city, by business foresight and enterprise, has succeeded in building up one of the largest and most extensive jobbing trades possessed by any city in the South, and in all probability it stands very near to Atlanta in this respect.

Roanoke has a wide field of territory reaching from Newburg to Bristol and from down North Carolina, (when the railroad from the South is built as it will be,) to a considerable distance up the Shenandoah Valley.

As a gentleman representing a Baltimore house remarked yesterday, all that is needed to make Roanoke a good jobbing town is to have people with experience and capital go into it.

A house manufacturing candy for instance and selling canned goods, (which are put up in the vicinity in large quantities,) and fancy groceries would do well, and besides give employment to a number of people.

All the drummers travelling in the country say that Roanoke is the best town in the country, for its size, in which to sell goods, and one man, who represents a candy house, says that his sales here reach $2,000 per month, and other large firms, no doubt, sell proportionately.

THE WISE AND UNWISE.

There are some people in every community, it matters not how active, aggressive and enterprising the great majority of the people may be, who look upon advertising as a matter either of good nature, extravagance or egotism upon the part of the advertiser, and think that money spent in that direction, for the most part, entirely wasted.

These are the persons, however, who are entirely content with what they are already doing, and who believe that a certain amount of trade belongs to them and will come anyhow, whether they bestir themselves and bid for it or remain passive and put every cent they make deep into their pockets.

These are the men also who are invariably left behind in the race of progress and the continually increasing activity of commercial life.

They make $5 and put it in the bank. Another man makes $5 and invests $1. He wants to buy his goods in the cheapest market. He wants the very best quality he can get for the money. He wants his goods arranged and shown to the best advantage, and then he wants the people, everybody, to know the inducements he can offer. He advertises to do this, not niggardly, but wisely and judiciously. He keeps himself and his business constantly before the public, and is always making additions to his stock and improvements in various ways when possible.

In consequence he soon builds up a large and extensive trade, leaving behind his less enterprising competitors. This is no picture of fancy. Hundreds of instances in which this has been done might be cited in proof of it. A New York merchant who spends $500,000 a year in printer's ink in keeping his business before the public was recently approached by a friend and asked what he meant by such reckless extravagance.

"It is purely a matter of business," was the reply. "We have a trade amounting to $5,000,000 a year. Before we began advertising so extensively, we didn't do half that business." The same man offered $5,000 for the first page of a New York daily for one insertion, but was refused.

A LONDON CLUB SCANDAL.

Prominent Personage Involved in an Ugly Investigation.
 LONDON, November 12.—Six sittings have been held in Camera, at the Marlborough street court, to inquire into abominable charges made against members of the West End Club.

Several laids, postal messengers, were arrested in connection with the case. The scandal involves an eminent politician, an officer attached to the royal household and several peers. Some of the accused are reported to have fled.

The magistrates who conducted the investigation sent a report of the result to the government, asking what course the authorities ought to follow. The government did not decide to spread the scandal if the offenders would exile themselves and the proceedings have accordingly been abandoned.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her, and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined, and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Get a trial bottle at Budwell & Christian's drug store."

James S. Simmons & Co., real estate agents, have placed the property of the Ingleside Land company on the market at $250 per lot, on terms of $25 cash and $10 per month. These lots are unsurpassed for beauty of location, and all parties wishing a desirable site for a home should call at once at the office of JAS. S. SIMMONS & Co.

For sale.—Four draft horses cheap Diamond Ice Company.

The Richmond Democratic city committee has adopted resolutions, by a unanimous vote, demanding that none but Democrats be employed in the municipal government.

Epilepsy.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, must have, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee the Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you good digestion and oust the demon of dyspepsia and install instead Epilepsy. We recommend Electric Bitters for dyspepsia and all diseases of liver, stomach and kidneys. Sold at 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle by Budwell & Christian, druggists.

General Mahone, Senator J. Don Cameron, and a number of capitalists of Petersburg, have gone to North Carolina to look after some property in which they are largely interested.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever, scalds, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Budwell & Christian.

Although the complete official returns from the Ohio election have not been received yet, Lamson, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, thinks he is defeated by eighty-eight votes.

Good Advice, Showler Resnit.

Edward Silvey, Chicago, gives testimony: "My wife had Catarrh twenty-five years; suffered severely for 'six years before she began to use 'your remedy. Unable to breathe 'except through the mouth, in a 'most critical condition. Tried every 'thing without relief, when Dr. 'Streeter advised her to try Clarke's 'Extract of Flax (Papillon) Catarrh 'Cure. Relief followed immediately. 'She continued to use it until she is 'now entirely cured. Her health has 'not been so good in many years.' Price $1.00. Wash the baby with Clarke's Flax Soap. 25 cents. Johnson & Johnson, Druggists, now have the Flax remedies on hand."

A wild hog was shot recently at Oak Hill, Cal., which weighed 500 pounds. It was snow white and had tusks six inches long. A pound of head was taken out of his carcass, the result of the former efforts of hunters to kill him.
